

160's 36
6
33
Constitution

Article I

Name

The name of the club shall be the <sup>ancient &</sup> Order of the <sup>mysterious</sup> Crimson Crowns.

Article II

Object

The object of the club shall be to promote concordance, companionship, curiosity and challenge.

Article III

<sup>satellite -</sup> Honorary <sup>members -</sup> members <sup>plenipotentiary</sup>

11 Honorary Charter members -
12 11 <sup>paramilitary</sup> officers of the <sup>order</sup> shall be the six Charter members <sup>from which</sup> a secretary and treasurer shall be selected <sup>and</sup> a historian to be selected <sup>from the pledge group</sup> -

Article IV

Duties of officers

(A) The six Charter members shall serve as the advisors as long as they are active. After all the Charter members have left the college and are no longer active the order shall elect a Chairman who shall serve as a president

(B) The duties of the secretary and treasurer shall be combined. Her duties are to keep a complete account of the meetings and to collect the dues of the members. She shall keep a list of the members, post notices, and ~~to~~ attend all the correspondence of the order of the Crimson Crown. ~~Historians~~ shall ~~keep~~ <sup>keep</sup> a complete scrapbook of ~~all~~ <sup>all</sup> invitations.

Election

(a) The members of the active order shall vote by secret ballot on all occasions in election of officers after the nomination has been made & seconded. The one who carries the majority shall be the chosen one.

Article VI

Meetings

(a) The meetings shall be held at a desirable time with everyone present.

(b) The charter members shall pass their agreement first on all people whose names are to be drawn up for membership.

Article VII

Amendments

1. There shall always be 3 members from the Senior class, 2 from Junior class, 2 from Soph. class and absolutely none from the Fresh class.

2. All things pertaining to the order shall be kept in strict silence.

Pledges Satellites

